

Software not reviewed

Urban Forest Inventory (UFI) was developed and is distributed by Forest Data Corporation (FDC) based in California and New York. UFI is available for MS-DOS[®] although is currently being upgraded to Windows[®]. Information about the number of communities using UFI is not available. FDC offers their services both nationally and internationally.

Services

- Forest inventories
- GIS/GPS data collection, database development, analysis and mapping
- Management plans
- Map production
- International projects management

System requirements

MS-DOS version:

- MS-DOS[®]
- 286 processor

Windows version:

- Windows[®] 95, 98, NT[®]
- 486 processor
- 16 MB of RAM

Software cost

The price for Urban Forest Inventory varies with community needs. Contact FDC for details.

Technical support

On-site training is offered with costs that vary with community location and needs. Online documentation is provided. Technical support is offered and may incur additional costs depending on the time required.

Contact

Forest Data Corporation
P.O. Box 276
Inverness, CA 94937

Phone/fax: (415) 669-7426
Email: forester@compuserve.com
Internet: www.forestdata.com